Monday (Before)

- Check in with host to confirm the party:
Hey (HOST), It's (YOUR NAME), your Pampered Chef consultant. I hope you are having a great day. I wanted to let you know I am looking forward to spoiling you with a ton of free and heavily discounted products and treating your family and friends to a fun and exciting experience with curated content specific to your guests that is super trendy right now! Do you have any questions before we get started? If not, send me a thumbs up so I know you are ready to party!

If a thumbs up, then, ask about flipping the party,

- Okay great! I just have to ask what might seem like a crazy question...but...have you ever thought of doing something like Pampered Chef for fun or for extra income...or would you consider it? Because instead of me earning the commission on your party this week, You could grab a starter kit - they actually have an awesome deal right now for just $25!! and have this party be a "try me" party! I would still continue the party as we are, do all the posting and the work...you'd still get the host rewards AND you would get the commission too! Most of my hosts decide "why not" and give it a try! I promise you really don't have anything to lose and I think you would be surprised at how easy it is too! Here are the three starter kits we offer at a huge discount. What do you think?

Monday Followup:

Hi (HOST)! I wanted to circle back around to see if you saw my message about earning your own commission on your party and the host rewards. 🙌🙌 Before I send you the invite instructions for your party, have you put any thought into trying this out with your party? I really think you have to give this a try! Just let me know either way so I know how to plan your party. Thanks!

No!

- "Can I ask what is holding you back from giving it a try and seeing what happens?"
- Use this guide to overcome the objection. Your Guide to Recruiting and Common Objections

Yes!

- "Okay great! Here is the link (Insert your Consultants Corner link to the Be a Consultant Tab) to jump on and grab your kit! It will take you just 3 minutes, let me know when you are all set."
- You received the New Consultant Email.
- "We are almost all set, all you need to do is create a party link in your consultants corner so that we can share that in your party this week for you to make the paycheck. Here is a quick video to show you how to do this. Once you have the link, please copy and paste it here so I can add it to your party this week.

Tuesday (Before)

- Create the party in Consultants Corner
- Create the Table Link, schedule pre-loaded (current month + add on) content to post now and schedule chit chat to post Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the AM.

Message 1

Good day! Some fun stuff for you today:

Here is your shopping link, pass this baby around! 🎉 It takes you to our platform, called TABLE, that anyone can join. It's great for even those who aren't on Facebook. TABLE's got amazing recipes, cooking inspiration, info about meal planning, recipe videos and more, plus, our party shopping link. Here's a great video all about TABLE:

<https://pamperedchef.widen.net/view/video/vhniwwcgcx/video-explore-table-video-usca.mp4?t.download=true&u=ggdIw3&x.share=t>

Share this shopping link with everyone, even tonight! You probably have friends who are looking to order an item right away. To access TABLE and shop, click here: (TABLE LINK)

You're going to love TABLE- it's fresh and new. Make sure when you log in, you put your Name, Email Address, and then your Cell Phone (This is important for receiving alerts about the party). You will want to add a profile picture (nothing fancy!) so your guests will know they landed in the right place! Drop me a 👍 when you've joined!

Message 2

📺 Last thing today- I wanted to explain the importance of TABLE in your party and give some tips on inviting guests. Watch this video to get your party off on the right foot and learn how to get guests in TABLE to benefit you! When you're finished, drop me your favorite party EMOJI! 🙌 VIDEO LINK: (CREATE YOUR OWN - here is mine as an example: https://youtu.be/dJu1L_SlQyY)

After your host has joined Table and watched the host coaching video.

Message 3

Please take some time to text out the table link to 40 guests. Once your done with this today, please send me a message back and I will send you your FB group link.

Message 1

Let's get this party rolling! 🎉 Here's your Facebook link- just click and join. (Facebook GROUP LINK) I promise inviting is the most work you'll have to do! We are going to use the "Invite" button on the Facebook page. There's just one trick- Invite about TWENTY (20) friends at a time and then take a small break. Facebook is sneaky about this and they might kick our party into jail 😞😓 Then we have to wait 24 or more to invite guests.

Shoot for about 100 invites or more. I know it sounds CRAZY, but experience has been around 100 invites = abt 10 party guests. Our goal is 30-40 members IN our Facebook group. That means you need to invite at least triple that number to be successful.

I firmly believe it's all in the numbers of people you invite- if you are not afraid to invite people who are "acquaintances", not just your "besties", parties are very successful! Besides, what's the worst that can happen from inviting too many guests, right? 😊 Any questions?

Also, today go ahead and make a cute "welcome" post in your party sharing how excited you are for it! (Maybe even a selfie with your favorite pc product, your friends will love it!)

Message 2

Message 1

Yay! Your pre-party is beginning today! 🥳

So, this next step to inviting guests is SUPER helpful and the KEY to success in inviting guests. (I think it's the most important step!). We are going to personally invite friends who haven't joined your group yet by sending a personal TEXT message. If you look at the "Members" in your group, you can see who's accepted your invitation. That way you can send out personal messages as text to those who haven't joined yet.

Remember to invite more than your best friends- family, neighbors, co-workers, are all great members to add to our party. Our goal is to have a Facebook group total of 30-40 members. Does that make sense?

Message 2

Here's the message- edit it to sound like you, if you need to. Just copy and paste it in a text or Facebook messenger message. However you do it, make it personal and don't send a group message. It's been my experience that hosts get better results when the invites are individual and not mass-texted out.

(Wording to personally text to guests)

Hey XXX! I'm super excited to be hosting a virtual Pampered Chef Party using our NEW online PLATFORM called TABLE. It's fresh and new! Here's the Table link with all the info about TABLE (and my shopping link). It's filled with curated content, on demand videos, games, recipes, 3D kitchen and a live cooking show with discounts and giveaways. And, when you join with your phone number, you'll get a free gift, too!

Here is TABLE and the Shopping Link:

- Send thank you text to everyone who placed an order today: (Create a Text Replacement <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TKf2KQOokgo>)

This is (YOUR NAME), HOSTS Pampered Chef consultant. I hope you and your family are well. Thank you for your order! Pampered Chef is my full-time employment and your support means so much to me and our family. We have a brief window to make additions to your order today before it is finalized. Text me back before 7:00 PM CST if you forgot something. We offer FREE SHIPPING at $150!! You will receive tracking information as soon as your order ships. Thank you, again! ❤️

Message 1

Good morning!! It's pre party day 2! We are aiming for 30+ members to join our group. So, keep an eye on the Facebook group under "Members" to see who's joined. You might need to remind some friends. Keep those host rewards in mind! The more guests = the more orders = the more rewards for you!

Last step inviting guests (WOOHOO!) and then most of your work will be done! Here's a fun graphic for your Facebook wall. You can post this wording, graphic and your party page link. Sometimes people miss the Facebook notification, so this is a good way to hit those friends! Our party posts officially start Monday morning, so we'd like all our guests in the group by Sunday night so they don't miss out.

Facebook Wall wording (Don't forget the graphic below):

Hi friends! I'm hosting a NEW type of virtual Pampered Chef party. It's FRESH and NEW! Join us for lots of fun posts, curated recipes for YOU, our 3D kitchen, games and prizes, too! Check your notifications for my invite or click this link: (Facebook GROUP URL)

Any questions about your party or host rewards?

Hi (HOST)! Here are some tips on how to have a $1000 party, which equals $215 in FREE product, 5 half-priced items, plus the host special for the month. The key is to stay engaged in the party. Have fun with your friends!

Using your host dashboard, you can see who's placed orders. Please post a Thank You to those who place orders and tag them in the post. This also keeps the page active. 😊 Show off your PC gear with pics! Or, add silly memes, GIFs for your friends- whatever makes the party feel like your style! After all, it's a party- have some fun! 🎉🎈

The way Facebook works is that if the posts from the party are commented on they appear more often in guests' new feeds. So adding comments, GIFs, emojis and tagging friends to start a convo really does help! Hitting the 👍 or ❤️ buttons don't usually help promote the page as much. Tag friends, play the games, interact and have fun! Questions?

- Create Tracker, friend request each guest and add each member in the party to the tracker.
<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1rpfahinU6UHeHhPuiA1cyCCMaQG8yRFrXSdZbvero/edit?usp=sharing>
- Track who has placed an order already, with an "x" in the tracker.
- Send early bird gift (ebook) to each guest who placed an order before Sunday at 11:59pm.
- Send thank you text to everyone who placed an order today
- Do all thank you posts in your Facebook party for orders placed today
- Friend request and reach out to each guest who liked and commented on the $500 post from yesterday.

Thanks for sharing what you would do with an extra $500 in HOST'S party. So many people are doing something like this, all online, as a side gig and loving it because it's so easy and they are surprised at how flexible it is. We have a special right now where you can try it out for just $39. I'm curious, have you ever thought about doing something like this all online, or would you consider it, to earn a little extra money?

Hi (HOST)! A few things today:

First- Don't forget, you can add guests all week long! The more guests, the better your odds for great results. Take a look through your "members" on the Facebook group and remind guests who haven't joined yet. And, scroll back through the "Invite" button and snag anyone you missed! It really is the key to success! Try inviting 20 more guests today.

 Today's tip for a successful party- get involved in your party- on Facebook and TABLE.

Here's one for you to try:

♥Post this on the Facebook group: Hi Everyone! I've really been loving this new shopping link- TABLE. I've played around on some of the posts and tried (XXX give a name of a game or feature you've tried). It was so fun and informative!

Which feature have you checked out from TABLE?

Try adding @everyone to your posts or tagging individual guests' names to keep interest in your party. And here's a graphic for your post, if you need one!

- Send Host Coaching Message

It's our last day, can you believe it? 🥰 FYI- I always leave the shopping link open for a few more days because schedules are busy!

✅ Thank you so much for partnering together and sharing your family and friends with me. I wanted to reach out so you can place your host order before tomorrow night. It is so easy for you to place it on your end and select all of your rewards you earned through your host dashboard.

Here is your host dashboard link: (HOST DASHBOARD LINK)

Please let me know if you have any questions, I am here and happy to help and serve you.

✅ I also wanted to let you know about our new consultant Success Rewards. You could earn these rewards/products free just by signing up after your party. That's over $1000 in FREE product PLUS $300 in commission! 🥰 And, you'll earn a sign-on discount for hosting. Just some food for thought on how lucrative this biz can be. Here's a link, check it out! (INSERT YOUR BE A CONSULTANT LINK) ? Any questions about your party or joining our biz today?
